

The U.S. Immigration and Customs Enforcement (ICE) Student and Exchange Visitor Program (SEVP) developed this monthly one-page bulletin, to inform you, our conference stakeholders, of the latest SEVP outreach news and events. Our goal is to keep the lines of communication open with you, help you stay up-to-date with SEVP's latest general outreach, programmatic updates and interagency coordination. Each month you will receive the latest SEVP outreach news and a list of the notable events, including a schedule of webinars available at Study in the States.

Live Q&A Sessions

We, at SEVP, are hosting live question and answer sessions on Study in the States. The sessions will provide you with the opportunity to submit questions and concerns to us, and receive answers in real time from SEVP subject matter experts. For more information on upcoming live question and answer sessions, visit our Conferences Page on Study in the States, follow us on Twitter \(@StudyinStates\) and like us on Facebook.

SEVP's New Satisfaction Survey

Did you recently hear SEVP present at a conference or participate in an SEVP-sponsored webinar? We want your feedback. To give us feedback on our outreach events, simply take a few moments to fill out the "Conference Survey" on Study in the States. This will help us continue to provide you with the best and most useful information possible.

Arrival/Departure Record Webinar

In April, SEVP and U.S. Customs and Border Protection hosted an informational webinar for designated school officials. The webinar provided information on the recently published interim final rule in the Federal Register to automate the "Arrival/Departure Record" (Form I-94).

EducationUSA and the Institute of International Education

In April, SEVP participated in a webinar with EducationUSA and the Institute of International Education. During the event, participants discussed topics such as the "Certificate of Eligibility for Nonimmigrant Student Status" (Form I-20), SEVIS fee payment (Form I-901), visa application, travel preparation and student employment. We have posted the recorded webinar on our webinars page for public viewing.

2013 NAFSA Annual Conference

In May, SEVP representatives attended the "Association of International Educators Annual Conference & Expo." Additionally, some SEVP subject matter experts attended via video conference to answer questions. SEVP participated in three sessions, "Hot Topics: Student and Exchange Visitor Information System (SEVIS) and Visas for Intensive English Program," "SEVIS Hot Topics: Current SEVIS I and SEVIS II Issues," and "Discussions with SEVP about F and M Student Issues." SEVP will provide a summary of questions asked at the conference, and their corresponding answers on the Study in the States blog.
